

Pamela Stonecipher

March 14, 1956 - October 29, 2025

Pamela Stonecipher passed away on October 29, 2025 in Dallas, Texas. She was born on March 14, 1956 in Terrell, Texas to H.C. and Wilma (Spiva) Hickson, whom she was reunited with in Heaven along with her loving husband, James Stonecipher and daughter, Casey.

Pamela was a bright soul whose energy and spirit touched everyone she met. Pam wasn't just a person who lived life; she embraced it—fully, unapologetically, and with a heart wide open.

She loved her family fiercely. Family dinners and vacations were always epic. If you went looking for her and couldn't find her, look in the back yard! She loved to garden and could grow anything from a seed.

Pam had a gift for making people feel seen. She never treated anyone like just another face in the crowd. Whether you were family, a friend, or even someone she had just met, Pam made you feel like you mattered. There was no “stranger” in Pam's world—only friends she hadn't met yet.

Pam's life reminds us what truly matters — kindness, compassion, and love. There will be a void without her here, and her laughter will be deeply missed. But she had the best welcoming party waiting for her in Heaven.

Pam is survived by her daughter, Pricilla Stonecipher; grandchildren: Preston and Anamarie; brother, Sam Hickson and wife, Debbie; niece, Brooke Hickson; nephew, Nick Hickson; great nieces and nephews: Madison, Hannah, Destinee, and Elliott along with extended family and many friends, all whom will cherish Pam's memory.

A Graveside Service is scheduled for 12:00 p.m., Friday, November 7, 2025, at College Mound Cemetery in Terrell, Texas.

“Granny Pam, you were one of a kind. Thank you for including my son, Christian, as your grandson and me as one of your family. Some of the best times were spent with you as he was growing up, even the time you sent him home with a grass snake named Squiggy. I always knew I could count on you and Papaw if I needed help with him in those growing up years. You meant so much to us and you will be sadly missed. We love you, Pam.

I do miss you Pam my old friend. God rest your soul. You did live for your kids & loved them so much. You never met a stranger and gave so much of yourself helping people along their way. I'll continue our promise to help each other's kids when we run into them out there, I'll extend my effort now. Prayers coming for the family. Until we meet again goodbye for now.
