“ Sweet Mrs. Pat has been in my life as long as I can remember. My fondest memories of her were when I was working at RSI Construction in my late teens / early twenties while going through nursing school. She was so intrigued in the stories I had to tell of what I witnessed while in my various clinical rotations. When I had bad days at school or was stressed about an exam, she was always so uplifting and supportive. Every time I saw Mrs. Pat she was always so well put together from her hair-do, to her outfit, to the smile on her face. She was such an amazing lady who I looked up to and respected. I will always remember how great of a cook she was. It didn't matter what she was cooking, you knew it was going to be delicious. Just like her green bean casserole she made for us every Thanksgiving. My deepest condolences to the Sparks family for the loss of a wonderful women. Heaven gained a true angel. - Candace Welch
