

Patricia Salcedo Avila

January 10, 1973 - April 17, 2024

Patricia Carolina Salcedo Avila passed away on April 17, 2024, in Forney, Texas. Patricia was born in Venezuela to Argenis Salcedo and Norma Avila de Salcedo on January 10, 1973, both of whom preceded her in death. She moved to the United States in 2001.

Patricia was the absolute best mother, friend and an amazing artist. Using her creative side, Patricia would turn natural wood into beautiful works of art that would not only capture the eye but also speak to the heart. On June 21, 1997, Patricia married her love, Fermin "Rocke" Aguilera, and together they made their home in Caracas Venezuela, Florida, Georgia, and Texas in the USA.

Patricia brought into this world two amazing gifts, Daniel and Isabella, whom she doted over with all her being. Patricia spent her life focusing on the needs of others and she was an amazingly comforting person. The kitchen was a special place to be for Patricia, especially when she would make the family her famous pasticho, pabellon criollo and her wonderful empanadas.

One favorite pastime of the family was to play "Lo bueno, lo malo y lo comico" while eating together as a family. It was an opportunity to bring the good news to share with the others, the bad news to make sure you have the family support and the "funny news" to share to add some of that Venezuelan good sense of humor as the highlight of your week.

Left to carry on Patricia's love are her husband, Fermin "Rocke" Aguilera, son Daniel Aguilera, daughter Isabella Aguilera along with host of uncles, aunts, cousins, and numerous friends.
