

Pauline Millender

April 24, 2024

Pauline Millender, formerly of Dallas, passed away peacefully on April 25, 2024, in Rockwall with precious family at her side.

Pauline was born March 19, 1931, in Dallas, Texas, and was a lifelong Dallasite. She was a longtime member of St Mark's Presbyterian Church in Dallas where she was very active in many ministries. Pauline was also a tireless advocate and dedicated volunteer with White Rock Center of Hope, an organization which assisted others with basic needs along with personalized empowerment.

Pauline was preceded in death by her parents, Phillip and Gladys Servello; her husband, Grady Millender, Jr.; her son, Grady, III; grandson, Paul, and sisters, Josephine and Phyllis.

She is survived by her daughters: Marilyn, Susan, and Becky; son, Paul; brothers Frank and Johnny; sister Frances, numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren; as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended family and a host of friends.

The family is planning a private memorial service at a later date.

“ Pauline was my next door neighbor 20 years ago. I was single at the time but married and had twins while still living next door. Pauline was so kind to me, my husband and our children. She always had a sweet treat in hand for my husband and was so happy for us when our children were born. She was a wonderful lady and I know she will be missed. -Jana (Hicks) Taylor
