“ My Grandpa will always be my hero. I miss him more than words can express. He was ALWAYS there for me, time and time again. I know he still watches over me from Heaven, and I still talk to him every day. He was my father figure as well as my grandfather, as my father was absent from my life. He made every dream of mine that he could come true, always striving to ensure my happiness. He was deeply devoted to me and extremely protective of me. We made memories that continue to help me continue on without him on earth, though it still feels impossible to carry on without him most days. He instilled in me so many good qualities, and if I can be a fraction of the man he was, I will have been an asset to this world and can hold my head high. My heart will never beat the same, but I will push through and live my best life to honor him and all of the time he invested in me. I will never know another love like the one we shared. I am blessed beyond belief that he is my Grandpa, and forever grateful that we share such a profound bond. My Grandma always said he was Pete and I was RePete. No one has ever given me a better compliment. He is always in my heart and with me at all times. I am able to go on knowing that we will be together again one day. I love you so much, Grandpa.
