

Phillis Farris

July 11, 1967 - August 24, 2025

Phillis Kay Farris passed away peacefully on August 24, 2025, in Mabank, Texas. She was born on July 11, 1967, in Dallas, Texas. Phillis is preceded in death by her mother, brother Ricky Hunt, and her loving husband.

Phillis spent some of her childhood in Campbell, Texas, but mostly grew up in Dallas. It was there, through a mutual friend, that she met the love of her life and wonderful partner, Clifton Farris. Phillis and Clifton were married on November 30, 1984 and shared 23 inseparable years together until his passing in 2007.

They made their home in Dallas, where they raised their daughter, Jennifer. The family relocated first to Garland, then to Mesquite, and ultimately settled in Terrell, which became their permanent home.

Phillis loved living a low-profile life and could always be found on the front porch listening to Kenny Chesney and watching her grandchildren play. She enjoyed spending time on the lake, hosting family cookouts and simply floating in the pool.

Phillis had a deep love for her dogs, especially Maggie, who survives her, while Stinker preceded her in passing in 2023. She had a heart for her fur babies and treated them as her own children. Phillis lived a beautiful life surrounded by her close-knit family, and she will be missed very much by all who knew and loved her.

Left to cherish Phillis' memory are her daughter, Jennifer Farris and husband, James; grandchildren: Kenzie Praytor, Brysen Praytor, and Mason Praytor; brother, Michael Hunt and wife, Rita; sister, Sandra Friar; and special friend, Tommy Smith.

A Graveside Service for Phillis will be held at 2:00 p.m., Friday, September 5, 2025 at Highland Memorial Gardens in Terrell, Texas.
