“ No es fácil pasar por la muerte de un ser querido, sobre todo cuando esperabas que su vida fuese larga y feliz. Pero así son las cosas, no perdamos tiempo queriendo entender lo que no tiene sentido. Llorarle es lo más natural, así manifiestas el inmenso amor que sentías por él y seguirás sintiendo toda la vida. Y recuérdale siempre, para que su memoria perdure en tu corazón.

En vida fue un hombre muy popular, cariñoso y entusiasta. Todos lo querían y respetaban, sabemos que será muy difícil de olvidar. Es una gran pérdida para la familia, pero los pasos que el dio y su historia servirán de ejemplo para muchas generaciones, manteniéndose vivo en sus memorias.

En estos momentos de pesar, estaremos a tu lado, guardaremos silencio tan solo para escucharte, extenderemos nuestros brazos para fundirnos en un abrazo que pueda un poco mitigar tanto dolor. ¡Paz al alma de ese pedacito de ti, que hoy está junto a Dios! Oraremos por ti para que encuentres serenidad.

“ I have known Rafael since he was a young man of 17 years old. I met him when my mother, Gabriela Sanchez, would visit her cousins every year for many years, his parents. He took me and my 8 year old son to Mexico City, he is a wonderful man. He came to visit us in Lodi 2 years ago and we had a party for him so the other family members could meet him. He also helped me at my home, putting in fire alarms. There could not be a nicer man. He spoke of his children and his wife and the new home that he was having built. I am so sad about the news of his illness he had to endure. My address is 33 West Armstrong Road, Lodi, CA 95242. You are always welcomed in my home. - Consuelo Casillas
