“ Wesley was such a sweetheart. I remember him speeding down Elm Drive waving when he saw us. He and my brother John looked so much alike we'd do a double take when we saw him. So very sorry for your loss.

My heart breaks hearing of Wes' passing. Wes rescued me (the HR Director) when I was broken down at Buccee's at 5:30AM. Since that day we became good friends. He was always my ride when visiting the Tyler crews. I will miss that big teddy bear! Prayers to you Jackie and your entire family. May God keep you all wrapped in his loving arms over the next few months.
