

Robert "Rowe" Cox

December 21, 1932 - September 9, 2020

On September 9, 2020, Robert Rowe Cox greeted his Lord with "I've longed for this day I would catch a glimpse of You. What happy glorious day this is for me as I am wrapped in Your arms to stay." I know my loving wife, family and friend are heart broken, but I want them to know I have a new body and I'm in a beautiful place with our Lord and Savior.

Rowe Cox was born December 21, 1932, to his father, Henry Homer Cox, and his mother, Elsie Pearl Raymond Cox. Rowe lived in Kaufman County most of his life. Rowe and Dorinda Cox enjoyed thirty-one years as owner and operator of an Exxon Station and Fisherman's Delight Restaurant where he made many lasting friendships.

On March 26, 1977, he married the love of his life, Dorinda Crow, whom he called Mama from the beginning of their marriage. The loving memories they shared while traveling and with family and friends for forty-three and a half years has, and will, last their lifetime. Many of these memories included their children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren, all of whom Rowe loved dearly.

Rowe is preceded in death by his parents, his mother-in-law and father-in-law, two brothers, and two sisters. He is survived by his loving wife, Dorinda Cox; sons: Dennis, Paul and James (Buddy) Cox; two daughters: Ruth Ann and Debra; several grandchildren, great grandchildren as well as numerous nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

Dorinda and Buddy Cox would like to say a special thank you and how much they appreciate Alinea Hospice, Jamie the nurse, Chaplain Dewayne, Poley the social worker and Brandi the CNA for their outstanding and loving services. We could not have had any better care.

Funeral service for Rowe will be at 4:00pm, Sunday, September 13, 2020 at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel with the family receiving friends beginning at 2:00pm to service time. A private interment will be held at Rader Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the Autism Speaks Research at www.Autismspeaks.org or to Dementia Society of America at www.dementiasociety.org.

“ Rowe was one of the finest men I have ever known. Always had a story to tell. Always in a good mood. Always loving and kind. He will be in our hearts forever. He was a great uncle and a great person and is at peace with our Lord now. No more pain and suffering. My prayers for his beautiful and loving wife, his loving children and grands and great grands. Although I can't be with you in person today, I am there in spirit and I love you all always. Vicki Vent

“ Rowe...you were always one of the most loving, kind, tender hearted , caring, God fearing men I've ever had the privilege of knowing (more of a brother than a brother in law). I know you are walking with Jesus and so happy at last. I'll always cherish the good times we shared and the talks we had. R.I.P. until we all meet again. God bless and hugs to all of the family.

“ Uncle Rowe, I will always be grateful to you for always listening to me and giving me the best advice. I always loved to hear you play the guitar and sing. You always had your spoon in your pocket to eat my apricot jelly. I love you always , and i cant wait till we're all together again. Give Mom and Dad a big hug for me. Fly high with the Angels.

“Daddy, so many things left unsaid, but “ I always loved & will love you!” That, you always knew! Every time I heard, “Dance with My Father Again”, I think of you teaching me to waltz at 7! We had some good times and the bad were no longer relevant! I love you, daddy & will miss you! But know, you are where you want to be! See you later, daddy! Tell mom hello for me!
