“ so sorry to learn of Robin's passing, this is Kenny, but i also go by Robin now.. i took it from my full first name Robinson in 1980 after i turned 18, to start new, new life and all. anyway Robin was a real cool cat! and i'm not sure if we're cousins or what it would be, always considered Hope, Meredith and Mendi cousins.. after my dad past away (Papa Dutch to all the kids), i stayed at Robin and Linda's a night or 2 i think it was, when Betty drove us down there from Ardmore, we had just spent some time out at Ardmore Club Lake at the old cabin, and Robin and Linda was real nice to me, they're the best! wish we could of got together, caught up sometime.. so many years go by before you know it, lose contact with people you care about.. anywho, just wanted to share my thoughts and prayers for the whole Miller family. wow, i miss everyone, been too long! Hope everyone is doing well, Peace...

“ Robin Miller touched many lives and had a large number of friends at Coca-Cola. He was well respected and from all of the feedback I have seen was a very jovial person and caused laughter wherever he was present. I cannot say that I knew Robin very well but I did know he was a good Coke Man. My condolences for his family and dear friends for the loss of such a treasured man. Rest in peace Robin ... you are fondly remembered ... John C. Dill

“ We all were so close when we were kids. We grew into adults and went our separate ways. As time went by we all found each other again , and I'm so lucky that you were at my wedding last year. It breaks my heart that we didn't have more time together. I will miss you and you always in my memories. Love you cousin
