“ I know you probably don't remember us Edith, but Ryan and I remember y'all.

We were just talking about y'all and the cute house you had on those 2 or 3 acres?

We stopped by to look at the house for sale.

However we didn't even have a credit score yet.

Unfortunately the bank wouldn't approve us.

We had a pet calf named honey bun, that Ron kept calling Elsie.

We sat and talked to y'all for hours.

Ryan is white and I'm native american and Mexican.

We're very hurt to hear about Ron's passing...

May god bless you and give you the comfort and strength that you need.

Y'all are in our prayers.

God bless you.

“ My name is Wayne and Ronnie is my brother n law.. I haven't spent much time with him for 51 years, however he played a major part in who I am.51 years ago I came home from Viet Nam, and was a little messed up. When I dropped by to visit Jimmy and Mary they were already old married people. They asked Ronnie to entertain me. We spent the better part of a week together .Ronnie helped me forget about where I had ben and what I experienced. He helped me be a kid again. We did a lot of little things such as go karts to bowling and every thing in between. I had blast and he helped remember what it was like to have fun. I'M sure no one other than Ronnie and myself knew how important to me this time was, but it altered my life to this day. I deeply regret allowing all this time pass with out telling him how important he was to me. I send my prayers and thoughts to his family.

I didn't know Ronnie we'll, but I knew him as Mary's brother and Edith's husband. He was a sweet guy and I am so sorry for Edith, Mary (for BOTH of your losses!), and the rest of the family. Rest In Peace, Ronnie.
