

Scott Allen DeLay

December 30, 1989 - March 31, 2021

In life, we loved you dearly,
In death, we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place,
no one else will ever fill...

Scott Allen DeLay was born December 30, 1989 to Ron and Tammy DeLay in Mesquite, Texas. Scott left this earth to be reunited with his loving Mother on March 31, 2021. Scott is survived by his Father, Ron DeLay and Wife, April, of Mabank Texas; Brothers: Shane, Stephen, Wesley and sister Shannon DeLay; Grandparents: Ron DeLay Sr. of Mabank, Texas, Frank and Shirley Belitere of Terrell, Texas. Scott is also survived by his loving Spouse, Italo Viggiani of Dallas, Texas and his loyal fur companion Casstile. Scott also leaves behind Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and numerous life-long friends. Scott is preceded in death by his Mother, Tammy DeLay and Grandmother, Elizabeth Miller.

Scott Allen was a 2020 Graduate from UNT with a Masters Degree in Psychology with distinction and qualified on the Dean's List and honors of Magna Cum Lade. Scott was working on his Teaching degree to become a Child Counselor. He was a hardworking man, the biggest animal lover, and was often known to give you the shirt off his back, literally. Scott was known to his family and friends as loving and kind, a big brother to all. He was always a big supporter of his family and all they strived to accomplish in life.

Scott Allen had a stylish creative sense that everyone loved. He took up weaving blankets. Each one undoubtedly created through thought to his client: their trials, their joys, their lives woven into a beautiful one of a kind masterpiece. Along with this, Scott loved to travel, decorate his home, spend time on his patio gardening and most importantly spending time with the ones he loved. Scott loved doing for others he truly had a heart of pure gold always thinking of everyone else. He loved nothing more than brightening others day with love.

Scott Allen was a loyal friend. Scott's passion in life was to keep his Mother's memory alive by mentoring and teaching children who struggle with mental illness. He sought those who needed mentorship and was willing to give his all to see each one succeed. Scott's legacy will live on to love.

As a Spouse, Scott was a loving, devoted Husband. Always making plans for a beautiful future, Scott and Italo shared an infinite love for each other.

Scott also loved his dear fur companion, Reeses. She was his joy! Reeses passed prior to Scott and he honored her with a beautiful passing.

As you continue about your life, we ask that you honor Scott by paying attention to the children in need around you. Be willing to invest in each one's success. See each one as a beacon of light for our future as Scott did. Matthew 19:14. Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

In lieu of flowers, please donate to St. Jude's in Scott's honor at www.stjude.org or charity of your choice.

Please join us in celebrating Scott's life on Sunday, April 11, 2021 at 2:30pm at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel located at 642 N. Rockwall Ave., Terrell, Texas 75160.

“ I miss you every single day. Every time something funny or sad happens I can't wait to call you and tell you about it. It's been a few weeks now, I know you're in a better place and you've gone home to be with God now. There is no doubt in my mind that your sweet soul found its place in paradise. One day we will meet again, so for now this isn't good bye....just a see you later. I love you and I will keep your memory alive everyday by being a good mother and wife...just like you told me to be. I'll see you later, give Resses a scratch for me.

“ Maybe someday I'll understand why everything happened the way it did, I just know it isn't today. I know I do miss you terribly, I keep hoping I just had a bad dream and everything is fine. I wish my phone would ring, and you asked how my day went. I really hope your doing better now. I know that I've been so sad since you left us. I know that I miss you, and will always love you.

“ I've known Scott since the day he was born. He grew up to be a wonderful human being & a friend to all. He accomplished great things in his life. I enjoyed playing cards with him and his Nanny Shirley.
Scott made me a beautiful basket weave throw just a few weeks ago wrapped in a beautiful pink bow,
I shall treasure it forever. I will forever miss you and remember you with such Love and admiration. R.I.P. 🙏
With Love, 💕
