

Sharon Sirkel

February 5, 1950 - June 26, 2022

Sharon Kay Sirkel passed away with family by her side on June 26, 2022 in Forney, Texas. Sharon was born in Texarkana, Texas to Perry Leon and Marie Lollis on February 5, 1950. Sharon is preceded in death by both parents, sister, Pat Adkins, and brother, Perry Lollis Jr.

Sharon was well known for her talent in the kitchen and her love for the open water. She would often be found in the kitchen making her famous chicken-n-dumplings, spaghetti, or jambalaya. After a hearty meal, Sharon would love to play card games, dominos and gin rummy around that same dinner table. When not in the kitchen, you could find Sharon around a body of water, either a pool, beach or lake. Sharon spent her career as a waitress where her smile was always a welcome sight.

Left to cherish Sharon's memory are her children, Tabatha and husband Bo Evans of Terrell and DJ and wife Julie Ball of Rockwall. Also surviving are her grandchildren Brittany Harris of Terrell, Jacob Thomason of Terrell, Kaleb Ball of Rockwall and great-grandchildren, Brayden Thomason, Liam Harris and Mason Harris. Also surviving Sharon are sister Donnice Limbaugh of Quinlan and brother Newman Lollis of Rockwall, along with many nieces, nephews and friends she dearly loved.

The family will host a Celebration of Sharon's life on Saturday, July 2, 2022 at Eastgate Church, Rockwall, Texas from 5 - 7 p.m.

“ My sincere sympathy to Sharon's children grandchildren and great grandchildren. Sharon and I sat at the same table in the dining room. Each of us enjoyed getting to know her. I have been an outpatient therapy for a month now. I would say Sharon as the residents were having group exercise. Pamela Dooley told me of Sharon's. passing last Monday. I was so sad to hear of her passing. Praying for each of you. Sincerely, Sandy Colgrove
