

Sheila Lynn McManus-Mora

February 26, 1963 - July 3, 2023

Sheila Lynn McManus – Mora went home to be with our Lord on July 3, 2023, with her family at her side. She was born in Dallas, TX on February 26, 1963 to Gary and Joyce McManus.

Sheila was a 1981 graduate of Mesquite High School. Sheila was an extremely hard worker and tougher than nails. She could outlast, out work any man or woman at whatever job she took on. Sheila was known for being plain spoken and being able to make people laugh. Her sense of humor made instant and lifelong friendships.

In 2014, Sheila married James Mora and their love for each other, along with their shared interest in raising cattle helped them have the happiest times together. Sheila our own “Ellie May,” loved her animals, each and every one of them. Her favorite pastime was spending time with her cows, especially Callie. Sheila is survived by her husband, James Mora, Terrell; her parents, Gary and Joyce McManus, Terrell; sister, Brenda Gay and her husband Jim, Terrell; her soul sister, Jaymie Hurt, Kaufman; nieces, Megan Gay Maier and her husband Rorey, Terrell; Summer Gay, Terrell; step daughters, Julianna Mora Viertel, Hillsboro; Stephanie Mora Walls and her husband David, Huron, OH.; step grandchildren, Marshall, Lauren, and Nick; plus extended family and many, many friends.

Sheila McManus Mora was truly “One of a Kind”. We will miss her.

“ I can remember hearing loud noises in the middle of the night coming from across the road, I'd get up and look down and it would be Sheila and James coming in. She loved her cows and Clyde. Clyde was her baby and he missed her when she wasn't here.

I'll miss Sheila and her late night trips to Nac.
