“ Shelly was somewhat of a mother to a whole group of kids around quinlan growing up. She deserved a medal for raising us along side of little Leon . It's hard to believe how quick time goes by , now, as we lay her down to meet our king of kings. We are left with sadness because we will miss her, but. She is always looking down on her kids, grandkids, greats, and us adopted kids knowing, she did a great job ! Without' one tube helping her to breathe in her new body! Thank you little Leon for allowing me to be apart of yalls family.

“ Shelley was an amazing woman so kind a giving. She helped anyone and never asked for anything in return. She means alot to us. She's so caring and she will be truly missed. I still don't want to believe she's gone but I know God has better plans for her and she's not in pain anymore. We love and miss you Shelley.

Love, Brandi, Steven, and RayLynn.
