

Silvia Vargas Duguid

February 25, 1933 - July 9, 2025

Silvia Teresa Vargas Duguid passed away surrounded by her loved ones in the morning of Wednesday, July 9, 2025. Silvia was born February 25, 1933, in Quilpué, Chile and was the beloved daughter of Guillermo Vargas Macaya and Julia Duguid Vargas. She has now been reunited in heaven with her parents, her sister, Cecilia Vargas, and her nieces and nephews: Sonia Sepulveda, Paula Sepulveda, Joaquin Martinez Vargas.

Silvia lived her life in devout honor of her Lord and Savior and took pride in interpreting and spreading His word through her Bible study. Silvia was a creative soul and enjoyed the intricate art of sewing and knitting; she could imagine anything and bring it to life with her own two hands. Silvia loved her family with her entire heart and wanted nothing more than to be close to them. In 2006 Silvia relocated from her home country of Chile to America to be there for the new addition of her grandson, Jeremy. Jeremy was the apple of Silvia's eye, and she dedicated her final years to watching him flourish and grow.

Left to carry on Silvia's legacy of love and creativity are her daughter, Veronica Leatherwood and husband, Kyle; her grandson, Jeremy Leatherwood; her sister, Sonia Vargas Duguid; her nieces and nephews: Mauricio Sepulveda Vargas, and his children: Gabriel and Benjamin, Patricio Sepulveda and Andrea, and their children: Sofia, Laura, and Sara; as well as many other extended family members and friends that will cherish the memory of Silvia dearly.

A memorial service will be held for Silvia at the Destiny Christian Center Chapel on July, 18, 2025, at 2:00 p.m.
