

Stephen Fields

January 9, 2026

Stephen Brent Fields was born September 10, 1956 in Big Spring, Texas and passed away January 9, 2026. He was preceded in death by his parents, Marshal and Reba Fields Odom and his sister, Pat Vaughn.

Stephen worked over 16 years for The Dallas Morning News as a Pressman, but after his retirement found the job of his dreams working with goats and chickens for Michael and Cheryl Vagi at Lacy Ranch in Elmo. When he wasn't working at the ranch, he loved riding his motorcycle and taking many trips and adventures in the mountains. Stephen was an accomplished musician, playing saxophone with the Mesquite Community Band where he made many friends. Stephen's best friend was his beloved schnauzer, Daisy.

He is survived by his sisters Glynnna Lewis and her husband Dan, and Marcia Cook and her husband Keith; children, son, Jacob Fields and Stephen's grandchildren, Skye, and Jai; daughter, Sarah Fields with one grandchild, Triston Allan and Stephen's great-grandchild, Birdie Rose. He was also survived by eight nieces and nephews.

Funeral service will be 10:30 am Saturday January 17, 2026 at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel with interment to follow at Elmo Cemetery. In lieu of flowers the family requests memorials in Stephen's honor to be made to Gideon International at www.gideons.org.
