Thackere Glen Zirger passed away on June 22, 2019 in Forney, Texas. He was born January 2, 1995 in Dallas, Texas. Thackere also liked to play online games and watch hockey in his spare time. He leaves behind his mom, Stefani Zirger; grandmother: Shirley Zirger (Dah) of Marbleton, Wyoming; grandfather, Terry Rogers (Papu) of Albuquerque, New Mexico; aunt, Shelly David of Big Piney, Wyoming; cousin, Dilin Hatfield and his fiancée, Crystal Edwards of Dallas, Texas; his uncles, Steven Wilson (Bubba) of Ardmore, Oklahoma and Larry Rogers and wife Crystal of Waxahachie, Texas as well as many extended family and a host of friends. A celebration of Thackere’s life is being planned by his family and will be held on a later date.

“ The way he would say "hello" to us when we greeted him. I always knew when he had gone downstairs because he would open the gate backwards. The first Christmas that he lived here, I remember he and Sarah opening their gifts on the couch. He fit in well with our little family and we will miss him so much.

“ I'll never forget when I was really depressed, and I wandered outside in a really bad mental state. You were living in my apartment with me and Grant at the time. You were the one who found me. I was hiding between some cars with a big blanket, my tears were so cold because it was winter. When you found me you didnt yell or act as if i was being dramatic. You just sat next to me, and asked how i was feeling. You calmed me down, and gave me some very simple but encouraging words. We talked about what was bothering me for a while before he helped me go back inside. I felt in that moment like someone truly cared. You have been an angel in my life, and many others. I'm sure you will continue to be, and i thank you for that. <3
