July 13, 1941 - December 13, 2022

Wanda Jane Vasquez passed away peacefully on December 13, 2022, in Terrell, Texas. Wanda was born in Mineola, Texas on July 13, 1941, to Grover and Manie Dell Hobbs, both of whom have preceded her in death along with beloved husband, Macario Vasquez and brother, Doyle Hill.

Wanda was an amazing lady who touched lives wherever she went. By trade she was a bus driver for schools, but in her heart, it was a caretaker of anyone she was around. Her daughter, Gracie, fondly remembers, "Mom loved me...no matter what!" Wanda was a huge fan of John Wayne and Western Movies, and she had a deep faith, being brought up in Pentecostal Church. One other highlight in Wanda's life was her wonderful cooking abilities. anything she cooked was perfection, but the number one meal that will always be missed and cherished was her famous tamales. Above all, Wanda loved her family deeply and held them as the top priority in her life.

Wanda is survived by her daughter, Gracie Bennett and husband, Rodney and her brother, Roger Hill and his wife, Becky.
