

William "Bill" Burch

November 20, 1953 - February 8, 2024

William "Bill" Burch passed peacefully on the morning of February 8, 2024 in Tyler, Texas. He was born to Fred Earl Burch Jr and Mable Marie Harwell Burch on November 20, 1953 in Terrell, Texas. Bill is preceded in death by his parents, several cousins, and a special cousin, Kirby Nix Jr.

Bill enjoyed watching television, with a particular fondness for wrestling and fervent support for his beloved football team, the Dallas Cowboys. In his youth, he excelled in weightlifting and basketball. His commitment to nurturing young minds was evident through the five years he worked with the youth as a member of First Missionary Church in Terrell. With his charming personality, quick wit, and sense of humor, Bill was a memorable and approachable person who will be missed by all who came to know him.

Bill is survived by his sister Alta Burch, of Terrell, Texas; special friends, James Wilson and Mickey Swindell as well as extended family and friends.

His funeral service will be held at 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, February 13, 2024 at the Max Slayton Funeral Chapel with interment to follow at Highland Memorial Gardens in Terrell, Texas. Bill's family will receive friends one hour prior to the service.
