

William Rice Hynson

June 30, 1938 - June 22, 2023

William “Bill” Hynson, of Terrell, passed away June 22, 2023, in Plano, Tx. Bill was born May 8, 1938, in Leedstown, Virginia to Charlie Alexander and Elizabeth (Rice) Hynson, both of whom preceded him in death along with his beloved wife, Roselyn Janelle Hynson and his cousin, whom he considered to be his brother, Danny Hynson.

Bill served in the Air Force and after his honorable discharge Bill began working as a technician for printer/communication devices including the teletype machines for many years. He had a keen eye for diagnosing a problem with a machine and a great ability to fix anything that was wrong. He then began a career as a truck driver, which he enjoyed and made many friendships along the way. When not working, his same talent at seeing challenges helped him see great designs as he created wonderful keepsakes out of leather and wood and any other natural resource, he could get his hands on. Many friends and family members were the glad recipients of handmade bows for archery and hunting, knives and holsters for the knives and firearms. Bill also loved to work on restoring old cars and bodywork became a passion of his over the years. He was always active either practicing marksmanship with his own pistols and other collected guns or loading up his mountain bike to ride around White Rock Lake. A man who enjoyed meeting others and never met a stranger, Bill’s love of life and adventure will never be forgotten and always cherished.

Bill leaves his memory to be forever treasured by his children: Randy Hynson and wife, Sydney, of Terrell and Diane Hynson-Ashley and husband, Brian, of Wills Point; grandchildren: William Scott Hynson and wife, Tasha, Isaac Marden and wife, Lacey and Daniel James Hynson; great grandchildren: Tyler, Aleah, and Kyra; brother, John Hynson of Hollywood, Maryland as well as other extended family and many friends, each of whom will greatly miss Bill.

A celebration of Bill's life will be held at Max Slayton Funeral Chapel on Thursday, July 27, 2023, beginning at 1:00 PM.

“ Mr. Hynson was always so kind to me.... Like a dad!! My dad helped my buy an old rusty 77 Toyota Corolla. I was just out of high school. Mr. Hynson offered to do ALOT of body work and painted that ole rust bucket. No demands on me and if and when I gave him $$ for it, he was good. Any thing I needed done on that car, he was there to help me!! RIP!! A wonderful man who will never be forgotten!!
