“ So sorry to hear of Edmonds death. He and I had fond memories of growing up in First Christian church in Terrell. I remember us sitting together in one of the pews, and laughing and giggling so hard that one of our parents had to get up and separate. I don't remember what was so funny. I also have memories of trips to Dallas with his parents, I think to see a movie. Oh, don't forget getting to eat ice cream at his house, they always had Kelpens ice cream in the freezer. We could have a whole pint for ourselves. Yum !
My condolences to his family.
