Yvonne then raised her children and, after they had grown, she re-entered the workforce and was employed with American National Bank. She had a bubbly personality that made instant friends of everyone she met. She and Jim Bob loved working the cattle on their land and, when not working, they took time to travel. Hot Springs, AR and Shreveport, LA being a couple of her favorite places to visit with friends and family. Yvonne's favorite weekends were spent antiquing and at Canton First Monday where she loved to see the many treasures from the past. A beautiful woman who enjoyed every day to the fullest, Yvonne's memory will be cherished by all who knew her.

She is survived by her husband, Jim Bob Wynne of Terrell; daughter, Holly Hargrove Tripp and husband, Dusty of McKinney, TX; son, Jason Hargrove and wife, Stephanie of Clearwater, FL; stepson, Robert Wynne of Poetry; granddaughters: Sydney Tripp of McKinney and Danielle Wynne of Canton; sister, Nancy McMahan Clower and husband, Bobby; sisters-in-law, Betty Jo McMahan and Joanne Breeden along with many other family members and friends who loved her dearly and will miss her greatly.

“ Yvonne will be truly missed. She was genuinely one of the nicest people I’ve ever known. She always wore a smile and had the most fun personality and she was pretty good at putting up with Jim Bob. While I hate to make a joke at a time like this, I feel like Yvonne would’ve laughed at that. Sending prayers for her family. ❤️
